Mars in Gemini

You are busily and agile and like to do several things at the same time. Besides, it can be that things are not brought to an end. You prefer to discuss and you are many-sided, with often varying activities. You possess sales talent and manual-practical aptitude.

Maybe there are problems with the cooperation with employees. For the work you show complete engagement, are initiativ and energetically. Possibly you take over with pleasure leadership positions.

7th House in Cancer

To feel well, you need the opponent. Also you have a big need for harmony. You want to appeal to others.

Venus in Leo

You love luxury and pleasure and you also like to show this. Vanity is not a foreign word for you. Money you handle generously. You dispose of artistic sense. Passionately in the love, you are sometimes a little bit too possession-affecting.

Fond to children is for you a big subject, also painting, acting and stylish clothes.

In the relationship you invest financially as well. Your partner is being presented by you. You like to appeal to others and often you just want to see the beauty side of your opponent. You are diplomatic in dealing with persons.

Mercury in Leo (in pull to 8th house)

Sometimes you are self-opinionated in the thinking, you trust only your own thoughts. Insignificant or details are not considered. You own educational and artistic talent. A representative work, also in the artistic area, might correspond to you. You have good organizational abilities and are open for a leading function.

It is important for you to have good talkings with your partner.

Interest in the afterlife or occult exists. Maybe you often look after secret thoughts, or plans. Could be that you are fixed spiritually too much on a thing and can hard free yourself of it. With pleasure you get to the bottom of things and own good therapeutic abilities.

Sun in Leo (in pull to 8th house)

The sun is the regent of Leo, stands in her domicile. She acts dramatic here, with a slope to the selfrepresentation. She positions herself with pleasure in the centre and acts with pleasure.

Definitely you need the attention of the environment. You don't like to show weaknesses, nevertheless you are cooperatively towards weaker. You are noble, magnanimous and proudly with big slope to the selfrelation. You also like to be comfortable a little bit and sluggish. The partnership plays an important role. Selfconfidence depends on the relationship. The enforcement in the outside world is essential. Strong interest in the cryptic and life after the death. So you own good arrangements to be a researcher, therapist. However, you also tend to manipulate others. With this position, a strong sexual accent often exists. The property of others can play an essential role, in the form of inheritance affairs.

8th house in Leo

Money or property of others can play an important role in your life. Also it is going about strong sexual accentuation. Possession and power, enforcement in the outside world are essential.

Jupiter in Leo

Big pride and self-confidence belong to you. Your magnanimity towards children is very big. You like splendour and pomp, to play and speculate with pleasure. You would like to be adored. Sometimes you are too lenient with yourself or careless. With a lot of vitality, life strength and big optimism you go into life.

Inherit is possible. Your interest in the occult, in spirituality, internal research is big. Also as a therapist you could succeed. For this, it is an advantage to accept the world view of the others.

Lunar knots in the 8th house (retrograde)

The lunar knot is no visible presence in the sky, but a symbolic size in the calculations. The climbing up lunar knots points out to the future and to your life-task.

Retrograde means that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

"From own possession to the common possession", this is the motto. Here you have to reflect on this what one really needs to the life. Create together something, learn to give and to take.

Besides, one is asked to estimate the real value; not in the exterior, more in the inner side.

Saturn in Virgo

Saturn is called guardian of the threshold and refers in every horoscope to a psychic process. He stands for responsibility, care and restriction and points to one of our major tasks in horoscope, which are most difficultly to understand (and to master).

Professionally you would like to perform the best what leads from time to time to excessive work. You are very dutiful and conscientious, organizationally in the job. Maybe you are sometimes too strict and magisterially to your employees.

You take your occupation very seriously. In crisis situations you are persevering. Maybe you are resentful and are sometimes a little bit too self-opiniated. You like to have power and authority's claims in the occupation.

9th house in Virgo

You feel desire to expand in the field of work, there you educate further yourself with pleasure.

Pluto in Libra (1972-1984)

Pluto is a transsaturn planet and concerns the general public, mass, not only the single ones.

General concepts: Change of the roles of man and woman. Relation forms change. Open marriage, local authority districts, new separation laws originate, the woman can keep her name in spite of marriage ceremony. New, extreme art forms originate, art and eroticism, eroticism in the advertisement, in the mass magazines, pornography.

There are fixations in the love, fixations in erotic images. There is the urge on controlling others, but also making oneself dependent from others.

10th house in Scorpio

In profession you like to take the responsibility and "the threads" in the hand. You are yourself the boss with pleasure. Maybe you tend to manipulate others. In crisis situations you show good staying power. Power and integrity are here the subject.

Moon in Scorpio

You are a very passionate person with draught. Trust and feelings are very important for you, sometimes you incline to want to own too much emotionally from other persons. Because for you feelings are very deep, you don't forgive easily if a beloved person takes distance from you. Unconsciously you create emotional dependence, would like to take power over the feelings of your partner or children.

Maybe you didn't get emotionally independent from your mother yet to live your own unique femininity. Sexuality plays a very big role for you. Maybe you also had to suppress in your childhood many feelings or you were not allowed to show them. Jealousy and emotional outbursts which are not controllable might appear.

With moon in the 10th house you take over with pleasure public responsibility. You search an occupation in public for yourself with pleasure where you deal with children, women or psyche. Manager, politician, career woman, this are some possibilities for the choice of career. The mother often has a strong influence on the occupation. Maybe one would like to be proved to the mother. The need for public recognition is very big. Popularity or position in public is possible. Professionally you deal with many people. You chaperon other with pleasure, you would like to provide with pleasure warmth, sympathy and security.

Uranus in Scorpio

Uranus is a transsaturn planet and concerns the general public, mass, not only the single ones. General concepts: Sudden wraps, computerisation worldwide, sexual revolution, strong desire for freedom, development of new therapy forms, group therapies.

Maybe new fields of research, therapeutic reforms interest you. Definitely you are freedom-loving and have unusual modernizable ideas.

Possibly you change often your professional aims. Inventors, photographer, work with the computer are a choice of occupations. Maybe you have authority's problems and don't accept superiors generally. Maybe you don't accept basically the political/social system and would like to provoke publicly, excite scandals.

You like networking with groups, organisations. Freedom and change in the occupation are important for you.

11th house in Scorpio

Possibly you exert strong influence on friends and groups. New, provoking methods in areas like advertisement or therapy attract your interest.

12th house in Sagittarian

Alternative world views in contrast to the general public and the search for new ideals occupy you.

Neptune in Sagittarian (retrograde)

Neptune is a transsaturn planet and concerns the general public, mass, not only the single ones. General concepts: Wanderlust, travel wave. Dream travelling. Esotericism wave, alternative world view.

Retrograde planets mean that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

Possibly you travel with pleasure and have developed an alternative world view for yourself.

Living ways which are out of norm find your interest, also to create such way of living for yourself. Maybe you feel desire for vacation by the sea or in the cloister. Film and TV are felt as curative (big world of feelings).

Possibly you suffer under confidential fears or longings. You have a lot of imagination and dreams. You have a big need to heal and to help. You own media abilities and artistic imagination.

Aspect description:

Dear XX,

with your well-balanced aspects you are very talented. Especially the Neptune-Pluto-Jupiter-Triangle gives you strongness to medial power and the ability to look "behind the curtain". Sometimes it is just good to drop aims and to let things flow. You dispose of an enlarged perception which rests in itself.

This calm is brought over and over again out of balance, namely by the Jupiter-Square-Uranus-Aspect. Uranus is fast-moving, agitated and curious and drives Jupiter to overcome over and over again stiff fronts. Often in short intervals you are asked to think over your world view again. This might be sometimes demanding for you, because under the Jupiter-Square-Moon it is difficult for you to let go your own desire, the moon would like to feel secure and wants to follow his own wishes. Sometimes you can accept the external destiny only under the condition if it agrees with your wishes. It is not easy to accept that one cannot have everything, but under this aspect you are requested to let go your own (self-seeking) wishes.

Perhaps, it is not easy for you to go into a permanently emotionally connection with a person (Moon-Uranus-Conjunction). Uranus brings constant change with itself and uncontrollable action what allows to come out emotional outbursts or reserved engage with a person. Feelings oscillate between passion and cooling. Also the mother could play a considerable role, in the form of refusal or absence. Maybe the becoming of getting adult was also suppressed, the living of your femininity. These feelings were experienced as painful, but they are over and over again the impulse to fulfill your own life-task.

The moon gets a certain serving of structure and feeling for responsibility from Saturn (Sextile). This lends you the ability to take over responsibility in the occupation and in public. The connection Moonknot-Sextile-Uranus points out once again to the fact that the reopen new ideas should be steered in the right direction - they must harmonise with your inner life.

Your powerful sun in Leo stands in conjunction to Mercury and Venus. With your talent to the speech you can impress people, and you own the necessary draught. With Sun-Conjunction-Venus you would not like to renounce a partnership, this is very important, because you can hardly live without reflection from the opponent.

Obviously there exists a discrepancy of emotions in relation to actions (Solar-Moon-Square). The moon would like to draw back into (female) security, while the igneous sun would like to go into action.

It also could be that the fathers side was a strong person who probably put too much his own ideas on you.

Because the sun is in a fixed house and a fixed sign, one often inclines to look at own opinions and at thoughts as the right ones. Because you are able on account of your charts to manipulate people, you should pay attention basically to act always in the service of the people and not to abuse this for your own desirable images.

The action planet Mars is not aspected, therefore possibly it is sometimes not easy for you to steer your desires and action wishes in the right direction.

It looks in such a way as if you would like to follow with pleasure an employment in public, as a photographer or therapist, in the fashion area, it can absolutely be an artistically inclined activity. The work with children would bring you big joy as well!

By your strong scorpion's accentuation in the chart you are very profound, therefore you could also take over therapeutic functions. It means that you are more busy in the (emotional) depth than to move on the surface.

However, you would like to shine in public and you should bring out this absolutely! Your task is to recognise the values inside of the person and to accept that other people have their own moral concepts.

You are a kind person and could realise this in the public. On account of your big vital strength and your astuteness you could achieve in the work with children, women, in the artistic area high valuable results!
