

Πώς να μιλάω με τούς άνδρες; How to Talk to Men

Living, Laughing and Loving your way to the Good Life!

When women learn to speak the language of men they can bring out the best in them.

The rare woman who blends feminine understanding with business patterns of communication wins the trust and respect of men.

Failing to understand the way men communicate in relationships and business leads to misunderstandings, hurt feelings and loss of income.

How to talk to Men gives you the communication tools to build long-lasting connections with the men in your life. You can learn to win the heart of your mate, earn the trust of your business associate or boss and protect the aliveness of your sons.

The workshop will open your eyes to the protective nature of men and show you how to win that warrior over to your side. You will bond deeply with other curious women who are equally committed to transforming ordinary or conflict-ridden relationships with men, into super-charged power partnerships

In this 3 day experiential class you will:

- *Experience the power of playing versus fighting
- *Re-charge your feminine battery
- *Learn and rehearse conversations with men that lead to win-win outcomes
- *Discover new dimensions of loving kindness
- *Experience the power of Yielding to get your way
