Solarchart for XX, 01.00.2010 - 31.00.2011, Athens, EET-Timezone

Planets and in Signs and houses:

Sun in Leo in the 12th house (Konjunction to AC)

The sun is the regent of Leo, stands in her domicile. She acts dramatic here, with a slope to the selfrepresentation. She positions herself with pleasure in the centre and acts with pleasure. Definitely you need the attention of the environment. You don't like to show weaknesses, nevertheless you are cooperatively towards weaker. You are noble, magnanimous and proudly with big addiction to the selfrelation. You also like to be comfortable a little bit and sluggish. At the same time you might have available enough portion of egoism or egocentricity. You are very self-determined and more an individualist. With pleasure you would like to form your life yourself and go your own ways. You assert yourself with pleasure and would like to demonstrate strength. Your general charity, the devotion and the affectionate allowance for others is big.

Aszendent Leo

The Ascendent Leo is self-confident and rests in his heart. However, he is in his heartfelt joy of life also a demanding contemporary who wants to be seen and be respected. In the negative sense this can also mean dominance, self-centredness and intolerance. The central subjects of the Ascendent Leo are selfassertion, pride and selfrepresentation. He appears with a natural self-confidence and, therefore, needs his audience. He pays attention to an impressive external position. His appearance can be rather theatrical.

Mercurio in Virgo in the 1st house

You perform pioneering work and are initiativ. The work on yourself or for personal purposes interests you very much!

Your mental attention is directed primarily on your own personal interests. You are eager to learn and fond of communication. Your action is based on logical and reasonable considerations, and can be marked easily by impatience.

Maybe you are often bent to overestimate your ability for cogitation or you underestimate the demands of the environment.

Therefore it is advisable to take a critical look from time to time to your own motivations and relations to the reality.

Venus in Virgo in the 2nd house

On the one hand you spend money with pleasure on useful things, on the other hand, you love the luxury and tasteful wealth. Important for you are material security and security in the partnership. This could also lead to fear of changes.

Possibly you create a picture of the other and deal rather with the subjectivity of the other, because you possibly do not dare to live your own subjectivity.

A safety job is very important for you. Also the job should be pleasant, nice and cosy.

You like many contacts at the work, deal maybe professionally with many people. Your work could well lie in the area of fashion, beauty, art, design.

Saturn in Libra in the 2nd house

Saturn is called guardian of the threshold and refers in every horoscope to a psychic process. He stands for responsibility, care and restriction and points to one of our major tasks in horoscope, which are most difficultly to understand (and to master).

Maybe you sometimes are too decisive towards your partner and would like to play the authoritarian figure. For you rights and duties are important in the partnership. At the same time you like to take over responsibility for the partner and person. Loyalty is a graduation. How you are judged by others, plays a big role for you.

The security in the partnership and the material security are for you of great importance.

Mars in Libra in the 2nd house

You are very outgoing and sociable. For your people you show big engagement. Can be that you are a little bit cantankerous sometimes. Pleasure and security play an important role for you. You plan with pleasure in the long term.

Pluto in Capricorn in the 5th house (retrograde)

Pluto is a transsaturn planet and concerns the general public, mass, not only the single ones.

Retrograde planets mean that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

You follow firm structures. At the same time you would like to sustain your position and expect from others that they admire you. You wish secretly that other will follow your informations.

You own big ambition and extreme strength to realise your aims. You would always like to be strong and therefore you incline maybe to selfcontrolled appearance. This appearance wakes up trust in other people, but it is also important for you to live spontaneity and to show your weaknesses. Every person has weaknesses, and one should know this and love. Weaknesses are human.

Also you would maybe like to make everything right and incline therefore to power-oriented action.

Lunar knots in the 5th house (retrograde)

The lunar knot is no visible presence in the sky, but a symbolic size in the calculations. The climbing up lunar knots points out to the future and to your life-task.

Retrograde means that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

Here you are asked to identify yourself with your internal creator's mind (your true energy source).

Very clear the theme is to activate the spontaneous selfexpression, the mental creativity and emotional joy for love.

You should work on this behaviour never to show up your identity. Important is for you to recognize your personal feelings and to live these.

Neptune in Aquarius in the 7th house (retrograde)

Neptune is a transsaturn planet and concerns the general public, mass, not only the single ones.

Retrograde planets mean that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

Neptune stands in the partnership house and appears from a sensitive, helpful, also egocentric side. The partnership should also contain a harmonious and sociable component.

You would like to enter a deep connection with your partner and at the same time you are also afraid of this relatedness. This leads to indecision and discontent.

As far as possible feelings should be demonstrated openly, because this openness leads to an actual attachment which you wish yourself from your deep heart.

Chiron in the 7th house (retrograde)

The special star Chiron is second regent in Virgo und regent to first degree of Aquarius. Chiron means recognising his very own (mental-releasing) work.

Also Chiron points to the fact that a real deep connection is searched. Maybe there are the partnership crises in which you can also grow. It is all-important that you show your feelings in full honesty. In conflict situations you should remain fair and creative. Maybe you feel unsafe and, therefore, easily affected, maybe you would not like to reveal feelings (injuries). Nevertheless, you should learn to develop trust to your people (partner). The acceptance is all-important to the fact that people and partners are in such way as they are. Then an open and more free contact becomes possible with each other.

Uranus in Aries in 8th house (retrograde)

Uranus is a transsaturn planet and concerns the general public, mass, not only the single ones.

Retrograde planets mean that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

Self-determination and independence play the essential role for you. The internal fights which you don't show struggle for truth and conviction, e.g. whether you are in the right partnership whether this has the value has you wish - it can also concern another subject. Maybe you doubt about your family, traditions, politics. With pleasure you go for the things on the reason, and cannot stop to question everything.

This constant questioning to something can be also very strenuous for you and other. It is important for you to investigate your internal feelings concerning your real wishes. This could avoid deep asked questions from your side which cause in others mistrust and insecurity.

Jupiter in Aries in pull to 9th house (retrograde)

Retrograde planets mean that the subject wants to be lived repeatedly.

Social engagement is very important for you. You can't see other people suffering. You have a distinctive desire for freedom and can't stand paternalism. Can be that an inheritance or gift of money approaches you by an assurance. Your interest in the occult, in spirituality, internal research is big. Also as a therapist you could succeed. Besides this it is of big importance to accept the world view of the others.

Also the sensitiveness for criticism should be practiced.

Even if you possess generosity and considerable success, you should not try too much to persuade other to their luck.

Probably you travel with pleasure. Your lively interest in continuing education and in religious-philosophical subjects is big. To find the sense of life, often happens through a trip abroad.

Moon in Aries in the 9th house

The emotional moon reacts in the igneous Aries's sign irritable, impulsively, egoistically and sometimes hysterically. One is impatient and slightly touchy. Maybe you would like to control the things, and react rather dominant to others. The (emotional) exchange with the environment plays a big role.

Maybe this feeling comes out of an internal conviction to be connected deeply with God. To find sensory questions or the key for the life are a very topic theme for you. Also religious questions, philosophical questions are marked emotional-spiritually.

However, you are very tolerant and noble. Your love for animals or Fond of children, also your love to the nature, are big. Your optimistic feelings can be quickly aroused and vanish fast. With pleasure you dream of a peaceful life of knowledge and journeys.

Dear XX,

concerning family life I cannot see anything about children, but more about your partnership and your personal life.

The relationship has at the moment no borders which are also difficult to define. It looks a bit diffuse. Through Chiron in the 7th house it is indicated once more that it is a matter of letting be others as well as they are and at the same time you are demanded to bring yourself more openminded into the partnership.

Very important I see on the one hand the big need for personal development which should be followed.

So the opaque, not tangible moments can be also cleared in the partnership.

Neptune in the 7th house stands in the house for relationship (partner house) and is not bound, i.e. he has no connection with the other planets and therefore it is difficult for him to express itself. The subject partnership is probably seen not quite realistic, dream and reality become blurred with each other, big helpfulness exists. Maybe there is a wish for a new more unconventional kind of relationship. Maybe the partner is idealised too much and maybe you would not like to introduce yourself also too much in the partnership.

Also the Venus in the 2nd house in virgin is not bound. Quite clearly she needs security and is afraid maybe of changes, has good access to money.

However, there also is here no linking to other planets. Also for her it is quite hard to express itself.

The big subject up to your next birthday is: SELFEXPRESSION. Quite clearly your personal life is asked.

The sun stands in the Ascendent in Leo in harmonic aspect to your moon, that means she would like to express herself absolutely and wants to be seen. Besides, it can be that the needs of others are not considered.

The red triangle in the horoscope (is also called achievement triangle) challenges you to bring your own needs outwardly and to develop them.

By Mars in the 3rd house in Libra communication and sociability are announced, and Jupiter in 9th house in Aries walks after selfdevelopment, advancement.

With Pluto in the 5th house one wants to enforce his self-expression. It is a matter of lending open expression to your feelings.

True strength is to accept also the own weaknesses. Maybe this is difficult for you, because you had to be always strong and were not allowed to show feelings.

However, a self-realisation in the playful sense with your gifts would be a blessing for you, your children and your partnership.

This challenge means, that you can lose nothing, only win.

It seems in such a way, as if in this annual chart two different developments prestart: On the one hand the strong urge for self-realisation, selfdevelopment and selfrepresentation, which show a lot of energy and strength in the horoscope.

Compared with there stands the partnership which calls at the moment after more openness and acceptance for the other.

This chart shows a clear way: If you go for your own real feelings, all will benefit and win.

Dear XX,

Thank you very much for your trust again. If you have more questions, please feel free to ask me!

Best regards,
Anna Strickroth
